The Sheikh-ul-Alam Centre for Multidisciplinary Studies (SACMS), University of Kashmir (KU), in collaboration with Shri Pran Krishan Koul Institute of Music & Fine Arts (IMFA) and the Allama Iqbal Library (AIL), organised a Sufi musical event "Celebrating Ameer Khusro (RA)" at the University's Main Campus.

The programme highlighted the enduring legacy of Ameer Khusro (RA) and celebrated the rich tradition of Sufi music as a cultural expression that continues to inspire the values of peace, harmony and spiritual unity across generations.

Speaking on the occasion, Registrar KU, Prof. Naseer Iqbal, said that the University remains committed to creating spaces where academic engagement is complemented by meaningful cultural initiatives.

"The legacy of Ameer Khusro (RA) continues to resonate across cultures and generations. Such programmes help preserve our shared cultural heritage while encouraging young people to engage with traditions that promote harmony and mutual understanding," he said.

In his remarks, Hazrat Sufi Syed Riyaz-ud-din Chishty, Director, Ajmer Global Sufi Foundation, reflected on the relevance of the Sufi tradition and described Ameer Khusro (RA) as a towering literary figure whose works continue to inspire people across linguistic, cultural and geographical boundaries.

Earlier, Dr. Satish Vimal, Professor of Practice at SACMS, in his welcome address, said that the event was conceived to familiarise young learners with the life, works and enduring influence of Ameer Khusro (RA), whose contributions to literature, sufism and cultural synthesis remain relevant in contemporary times.

The event featured a soulful musical performance by noted vocalist Vusat Iqbal Khan of the Dilli Gharana, who presented a repertoire of compositions associated with the Sufi tradition and the poetic legacy of Ameer Khusro (RA).

Students from IMFA also joined the performance, showcasing classical and Sufi renditions that complemented the thematic focus of the programme.
